

P&C News

March 2023

The P&C met for the Annual General Meeting and the first General Meeting for the year on Tuesday 14 March 2023.

A new executive committee has been elected and will be taking the reins for 2023.

Your new committee is:

- President Jess Huiskamp
- Treasurer Cassie Fraser
- Vice President Kim Hannant

P&C Updates

Budgets and donations for the year are still to be finalized but the ball is rolling on the concrete painting in the primary school.

Secondary students will get to taste some flavours of the world for Harmony Day with the Senior Canteen running a special one week only menu.

WATCH OUT FOR...

As we close out Term 1, watch out for:

- reports cards
- parent teacher interviews (which can be booked through the Compass app)
- Cross Country coming up in Week 10.

School Updates

- Debbie Hansen, Executive Principal, provided an overview of some adjustments to the school's strategic plan and talked to the school's focus on Universal practices for academic engagement and Positive Behaviour for Learning.
- Alfio Balsamo, Dean of the College, talked to us about Compass and BYOD. Keep an eye on the school's Facebook page for updates and links to the how to guides.
- Kelsey Oakes, Secondary Principal, provided an overview of the goings on in the secondary school including:
  - the Flexible Learning proposal for Years 11 and 12 students
  - The upcoming year 7 camp
  - the outstanding efforts of students and staff in raising over $5000 for the Leukaemia Foundation.
- Peter Lund, Primary Principal, provided the primary report including news about:
  - The new digging pits installed, which are going down a treat with the kids
  - The many sporting events happening in Term 1 including:
    - FISAF
    - Regional sports trials
    - Swimming for years 1,2, 4 and 6
    - Sport Gala days – training
    - Cross country in week 10

The P&C will meet formally again in May but until then, feel free to get in touch.
